The Toughest Test in College

optional Friday AM only

a DVD Presentation

(Documentary interviewing college students on how their faith was challenged by peers, professors, and administrations challenging us to have a solid Biblical worldview before we get to college.)

what to bring

All campers should bring a Bible, sleeping bag, pillow, flashlight, and bug repellent. You may wish to have an umbrella, camera or additional reading material as well. A book table will also be set up, and campers may wish to bring money (U.S. Funds) to purchase books, or for special activities.

Camp Michawana offers a wide variety of activities. At the lake, you may swim, fish, canoe, or kayak. The athletic field is perfect for soccer, football, or ultimate Frisbee. Volleyball courts are also available. Inside, ping-pong tables will be set up. Bring along whatever you might wish to use for these activities.

conference rules

The conference rules are outlined on the back of the application form, and you are asked to obey these guidelines out of love. They are intended to provide Christian direction to your behavior and its motives. If followed, they will enrich the camp environment and allow for the greatest possible growth among us. Thank you for your cooperation.

DARE TO BE LIKE DANIEL

a parallel study of the book of Daniel

Do you find yourself standing alone for the truth in your family, the classroom, or at work? Do you struggle with the world's demand for tolerance and political correctness? Are you anxious over the economic confusion, and does evil seem to be winning? Do you desire to move out of your comfort zone and be a stronger witness for Jesus Christ?

As teens, Daniel and his friends lived during a chaotic period of history similar to ours. They were subjected to powerful and subtle forms of indoctrination. They could have compromised and given in to the temptations of material prosperity and personal advancement, but they purposed in their hearts to please God. Their history shows us it is possible to stand alone for God in a hostile environment, but it involves a change of heart, integrity of character, and trusting God with the outcome. The prophetic visions of Daniel also show us that though all seems hopeless, God is still on the throne and is moving the events of history forward according to His perfect, sovereign will.

Youth Camp 2011 will be held July 5-8 at Camp Michawana, Hastings, MI. So plan to join us as we parallel the Book of Daniel with our lives today and take the challenge to stand alone for the truth.

topics will include:

Standing Alone: Having Conviction & Courage

by Rev. Mark Kelderman (Daniel 1-3)

Standing Firm: Holy Habits

by Dr. David Murray (Daniel 6)

Standing for Life: An Abortion Survivor's Story

by Gianna Jessen*

Standing in Society: A Bright Light in Dark Times

by Mr. James Beeke (Daniel 4-5)

Standing for Eternity: Apocalyptic Encouragement

by Mr. Scott Dibbet (Daniel 7-12)

Standing on the Rock: Daniel's God

by Rev. David Lipsy

*After being burned with saline for approx. 18 hours in the womb, Gianna was delivered alive, albeit with cerebral palsy. She thanks God daily for her handicap and her life, and she travels worldwide speaking out against abortion.
